Pathways to Prosperity: What is Needed for a Successful Career?

Young adults without some type of postsecondary credential only have a 12% chance of earning enough money to provide the salary that supports an acceptable standard of living. By 2020, more than two-thirds of jobs and almost all living-wage jobs will require some kind of workforce certification, credential or degree. Are the students of Central Texas prepared? Now is the time to tackle this issue for the younger generations in our communities.

These conversations will take place starting in late March through early May in communities across Central Texas. We will bring together parents, students, educators, businesspeople, policymakers, and others to address the barriers limiting student success after high school. Participants will explore the important connection between education and pathways to career success.

Everyone is welcome to attend. These free events will provide information, facilitated conversations, a meal, supervised activities for children and Spanish-English interpreters. For a listing of event dates and to register, go to www.E3Alliance.org/conversations.

Join us as a volunteer facilitator for these important events!

Choose one training day: Saturday, March 9 or March 30, 10 am - 12 noon, ACC Highland Business Center, or in San Marcos on Mon, March 25, 6-8 pm at City Park Rec Hall

We are looking for people who are...

- Excited about supporting these important community conversations
- Committed to the training and facilitating of at least one of the two-night events

As a facilitator, you will...

- Participate in a FREE two-hour training
- Facilitate powerful small-group dialogue at a two-night series in one of five locations across the region

You will receive...

- A $100.00 stipend from E3 Alliance for participating in the training and facilitating the conversation series
- FREE facilitation training by Civic Collaboration (training of this type can cost hundreds of dollars!)
- A chance to play an active role in helping change the culture of our region

Not sure if you're qualified?

- The most important qualifications of a facilitator are good "people skills," the ability to remain neutral at all times and a commitment to supporting an inclusive, action-focused discussion
